And Say that It Has Cured Them. Read What They Say:

Col. W. T. Swain Says Munyon's Paw-Paw Has Made Him Feel Like a New Man.

Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Washington, D. C., Nov. 13, 1909.

Paw-Paw has cured me absolutely of nervousness and general indisposition, arising from rheumatism, long continued, and seems to have cured the rheumatism. I was a great sufferer before I began to use Paw-Paw. One bottle has effected all this and I now feel as well as I ever felt in my life.

(Signed) W. T. SWAIN.
What Major De Batz Says.
Office of the War Department, Washington, D. C., Nov. 2, 1909.

I have been so greatly benefited by Paw-Paw that I scarcely know how to sufficiently praise its merits. I suffered from general debility and most acute indigestion, from which I could obtain no relief. I was advised to try Munyon's Paw-Paw. I did so and found instant beneficial effects. It has done me unspeakable good and it is truly a wonderful remedy. Paw-Paw has raised me up and has kept me up.

(Signed) WM. DE BATZ.
Major De Batz is the translator of all foreign communications of an official character and is very popular in the official and social circles of the National Capital.

Don't resort to alcoholic stimulants when you feel weak or depressed, but depend upon Paw-Paw. It gives exhilaration without intoxication. It will lift you into the high altitude of hope and hold you there.

MUNYON.
At all druggists. Large bottles, $1. Paw-Paw Pills, 25 cents a bottle.

HUNTING PARTRIDGES IN EXPRESS OFFICE

A Dog That Stands Dressed Birds in a Box of Eggs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., Dec. 7.—Game Warden Weatherly continues to prosecute express matter here containing partridges shipped out of the State. Last night his bird dog "sat" an express package of eggs at the depot. The eggs were broken into and eight birds were found "nesting" therein among the eggs. The shipment was from J. P. Danley, of Arrarat, the consignment being to I. H. Wallenstein, at Washington.

DIED FROM MORPHINE

Elks' Memorial—Three Tragic Deaths Among Members.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALISBURY, N. C., Dec. 7.—Mr. John Sheehan, a former resident of Wilmington, who has been spending some time in Salisbury and Spencer, in the interest of his health, was found dead in his bed Sunday morning at the home of Mr. C. H. Naylor, of Spencer, with whom he was stopping for the night. He had been addicted to the use of morphine for some years. The family thought he was sleeping soundly at a late hour, when they retired. Upon visiting the room early yesterday morning it was found that he had been dead some time. The Elks' memorial exercises, held here yesterday, was an elaborate occasion, and was largely attended by the general public. The annual address, which was calculated to make many friends for the order, was delivered by Mr. A. W. Callaway, of Asheville. The Salisbury lodge lost three members by death during the past year, each of which was tragic viz.: Mr. F. J. Church, who was drowned in the Yadkin River; Mr. Ruten R. Coyles, of Statesville, who died from an overdose of medicine; and Captain W. J. Elgie, keeper of the Federal Cemetery here, who died suddenly. In the case of Iddings vs. the Southern Railway, which was tried at the recent term of Rowan Superior Court, the plaintiff was allowed $1,000 damages for the killing of Mr. Iddings at a crossing near Spencer last winter.

DRAMATIC SCENE

Miss Claude Pegram Identifies Her Assailant in Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Dec. 7.—Sidney Moore, colored, accused of attempting to commit a nameless crime upon Miss Claude Pegram at her father's spring, three miles northwest of town, last June, was given a preliminary trial to-day. Miss Pegram, after identifying the negro in the court room, exclaimed in a determined voice, "If I had my way, you would never get out of here alive!" Moore was ordered to jail without bail to await trial at the February term of court.

CAROLINA BAPTISTS

The State General Convention to Meet in Charlotte Wednesday in Annual Session.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT

The Amount Raised for Foreign Missions Nearly Doubled This Year—Governor Hunting.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALPHIGH, N. C., Dec. 7.—The North Carolina Baptist State Convention meets in Charlotte Wednesday, having met there just nine years ago, and Rev. Livingston Johnston, the corresponding secretary of the convention, who is just completing his report, says a comparison of the progress achieved within this brief period is truly remarkable. Nine years ago only $7,000 was reported for foreign missions. This year $17,000 is reported. The following is a summary of the statistics in general: For State missions, $26,800 has been raised in the past year; for foreign missions, $17,000; for home missions, $7,702; for ministerial education, $4,710; for the Baptist Orphanage, $25,000; for ministerial relief, $1,700; for miscellaneous, $500. The total amount raised in 1904 was $38,420. The total amount raised this year is $82,000.

UNION OF SCHOOLS.
Nine years ago the Baptist Female University had not been opened, and only $18,000 had been raised to start it. To-day they have five buildings in Raleigh, are educating 250 pupils, have a faculty of twenty, and the value of the university property is $175,000. Nine years ago the Orphanage at Thomasville had only one hundred and twenty-six children; it now has two hundred and sixty. The plant was worth only $2,500 then; it is now worth more than $150,000.

There are fifty-nine Baptist associations in the State. There are 103 missionary societies working within the State; these missionaries supply 477 churches and 273 out stations. They baptized last year 1,178 persons, and there were 2,222 conversions under their ministry. They organized 25 churches. There are 50 houses of worship being built at this time. The Woman's Missionary Societies of the State raised $12,000 for missions. The greatest increase of the year is in gifts to foreign missions, being a gain of $3,500. Money raised for all objects of the convention this year is $85,000 more than last year.

GOVERNOR HUNTING.

Governor Aycock and State Auditor Dixon left this morning for Cuggituck Sound, where they will spend the week hunting and fishing. They are to be joined by Judge Francis Winston and Mr. Horton Currin, of Bertie county, and Judge Westcott, of the New Jersey Supreme Court.

The Secretary of State charters the Southern Information Bureau of Asheville. Among the purposes of its incorporation are to advertise the resources of the South, publish magazines, newspapers, etc. Also do general real estate and insurance business. The capital is $25,000.

State Auditor Dixon announces that the pension warrants for Confederate veterans will be in the hands of the clerks of the court in the several counties December 15th, and all pensioners can call for them on that date. Hereafter the warrants have been sent to the registers of deeds for distribution.

ANNEX DEDICATED.

Rev. Dr. Strickler Preaches to a Vast Audience—A Banquet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., December 7.—Yesterday was a red-letter day in the history of Greensboro, and especially of the church, by reason of the formal dedication of the splendid annex known as the Smith Memorial Building, which since September under the patronage of $25,000, and every dollar of its cost paid off.

The services began at the opening of Sunday-school in the morning, when Dr. Henry Lott Smith, president of Davidson College, delivered a most appropriate and beautiful address to a packed auditorium of children and grown people. At the regular services Rev. Dr. G. B. Strickler, professor of theology in Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, preached to the largest audience ever assembled in Greensboro before for religious worship. Services in several of the other city churches were suspended for the purpose of assisting in the celebration. There was another overflow congregational meeting at the annex last night, presided over by the pastor, at which stirring addresses were made.

To-night an interesting dedicatory exercises were brought to a happy conclusion by a banquet to the men of the church in celebration of the tenth anniversary of the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. Smith, presided over by the pastor, and the Men's Brotherhood of the Church. Hon. Z. V. Taylor, who also acted as toastmaster.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

Statesville Makes Appropriation for Maintenance and Site.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) STATESVILLE, N. C., Dec. 7.—The city aldermen this afternoon appropriated five hundred dollars to be used annually for the maintenance of a public library, to be erected here by the Carnegie Foundation at a cost of five thousand dollars. The specifications call for the gift of a site by some philanthropic citizen or citizens, and the location to be acceptable to the Board of Aldermen.

The appropriation is the result of the efforts of the ministers and a few of Statesville's citizens.

NORTHAMPTON TO MAKE EXHIBIT

The County Makes an Appropriation for the St. Louis Exposition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

EASTVILLE, Va., Dec. 7.—The Board of Supervisors of Northampton county, here to-day, made an appropriation of $150 for a county exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition.

Mr. Babcock, of the State commission, was present in the interest of the exposition, and Mr. Patton, of Newport News, who is connected with the Jamestown Exposition move.

FUNERAL ACCIDENT.

Porch Falls With Large Number of Persons Upon It.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Dec. 7.—The funeral of Mr. Stuart Williams took place at the residence, on High Street yesterday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. W. H. Edwards, of the Methodist Church, and Dr. John B. Turpin, of the First Baptist Church. Among those who attended the funeral were the firemen of the city.

An unusual incident, and one that caused much consternation, and which might have been attended with fatal results, occurred just before the close of the services at the house. The front porch of the residence, with fully sixty persons thereon assembled, gave way, and fell to the ground, a few feet below, with a crash.

None on the structure were injured, but the greatest surprise had been caused by the fall, for it was known that several people were not killed. The front door of the residence was quickly locked when the crash came. Those inside were forced to remain quiet, but those outside were panic-stricken. The only thing that prevented a destruction of life was that the porch collapsed only in the center, between the posts, and the latter held the roof firm. If the roof had fallen, the results would have been horrible to imagine.

CAPTAIN CULLEN'S CASE.

He is Well Represented by Eminent Counsel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, Va., Dec. 7.—Captain Orlan Clyde Cullen, the lawyer, preacher, gun inventor and hotel man, who had been in jail since September under indictment for fraudulent use of the mails, was taken to Harrisonburg to-day for trial in the United States Court. He is well represented by the eminent counsel of the county, and the case is being handled with skill and precision. In the matter of counsel, Captain Cullen is abundantly provided. His lawyers include D. C. O'Flaherty and General William Anderson, Colonel Fred Stevens, of Richmond; M. L. Fulton and Gardner Waller, of Front Royal; Congressman Fred Stephens and Senators Newton Nelson and Moses Clapp, of Minnesota, the Captain's native State.

Captain Cullen ascribes his troubles to blackmail and stated that the Senate Committee on the Judiciary had ordered an investigation of the district-attorney's office of the Western District of Virginia. Three indictments against Cullen have been withdrawn.

THE MAYOR FINED FOR ABUSIVE WORDS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Dec. 7.—Mayor J. Samuel McCue was fined $10 and costs on Saturday evening for using abusive language towards Mr. J. W. Marshall, a well known citizen and former merchant.

The case was heard before Councilman L. W. Graves, who imposed the maximum amount for the offense.

Ayers—Bozel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, Va., December 7.—Miss Mabel Virginia Bozel, daughter of Mr. R. B. Bozel of this city, was married here last night at the home of the bride's parents to Mr. John V. Ayers, of Bedford City, Va., Rev. Dr. J. Rosebro officiating.

REPORTED ADVERSELY

The Senate Committee Against the Bill Breaking the Baylor Survey.

THE VOTE WAS VERY CLOSE

Chances Are Said to be That it Will Fail of Passage in the Senate.

The Senate Committee on Fish and Game held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which a vote was taken on the question of reporting the Jordan oyster bill, recently passed by the House of Delegates. The result of the meeting was that the committee, by a close vote, determined to report the bill, with the recommendation that it do not pass. This decision was reached in executive session with eight present, but all voting. While the members of the committee would not state just how the vote stood further than to say that it was very close, it is understood that five were for reporting the bill favorably, and the other six members of the committee opposed to so reporting it. This estimate all of the eleven members of the committee were recorded on the measure, though there were only eight actually present. However, all of them had heard arguments on the bill before the House Committee on the Chesapeake and Fisheries, and every man was recorded, either for or against.

HOW THEY STOOD.
While the proceedings were executive and the status of the vote was not announced, it is understood that the committee was divided about as follows:

For reporting the bill—Messrs. Kezell, Gold, Bryant, Cromwell and Halsey—5.
Against reporting the bill—Messrs. Gunter, Tyler, Walker, Shands, Sears and Hutcherson—6.

Mr. E. H. Harrison, of Charlotte, voted with the "fisher" members and broke the tie, turning the tide against the bill in the committee.

While the recommendation of a committee is not always a guarantee of passage, it is a recent showing when the House of Delegates reversed the recommendation of its committee on this very bill, it is generally admitted that the more conservative Senate is less likely to disregard a recommendation of its committee.

OPPOSITIONS CONFIDENT.

Senators are naturally averse to committing themselves on a measure before it has come before them and when they have heard arguments for or against. That is the reason why the committee is so confident that the bill will fail of passage. If the information derived from men supposed to be confidential is known to be in the matter of this bill. Friends of the measure are claiming little, however, while its opponents are quietly confident that the bill will fail of passage. ### WOMAN GRABS A BURGLAR AND HOLDS HIM

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 7.—Miss Salie Smith, of No. 104 Fourth Street, this city, yesterday captured John Smith, a burglar, last night. She opened the door for him, having seen him prowling about the premises for some time. When he entered she grabbed him and held on so tightly that assistance arrived before he could break loose. The man was sent up for a year to-day.

Dodd Pays the Penalty.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BLUEFIELD, Va., December 7.—Matt Dodd, who shot and instantly killed Lee Palmer, of Huntington, W. Va., in the shops here December 3, and who was tried and sentenced to eight years in the State penitentiary, was taken to the penitentiary to-day.

MASS-MEETING HELD.

WARSAW, Va., Dec. 7.—A mass meeting, composed of the most representative citizens of Richmond county, was held at this place to-day, at which strong resolutions protesting against the passage of the bill breaking the Baylor survey, were unanimously adopted; no previous notice of the meeting had been given, but it being court day, there was a large crowd present, and a feeling of excitement. The passage of the Jordan bill by the House of Delegates was so intense and so general that it was determined that a meeting should be held and resolutions passed, voicing the universal sentiments of the citizens of the county against the breaking of the survey.

In addition to those directly interested in the oyster industry, planters, tanners and dealers, there were in the meeting lawyers, doctors, ministers of the gospel, mechanics, farmers and business men of every class. It was stated by those who addressed the meeting that there was not a citizen of the county who was not opposed to the breaking of the Baylor survey, and it developed that those favorable to the Jordan bill were more hostile to the Jordan bill than the tanners.

The opinion was expressed by those who addressed the meeting that even were it to be the best interest of the people of the State to put it in a good, old-fashioned natural rack, the rental fixed in the bill was ridiculously low, and that whether fixed at the low figure for the purpose of enabling syndicates and capitalists to grab rock which could easily be rented for fifty or a hundred dollars a year, it would have that effect.

COMMITTEE NAMED.

A committee, composed of seven of the leading citizens of the county, was appointed to go to Richmond for the purpose of urging the passage of the bill. The members of the committee are P. Yates Barber, farmer and oyster planter; Hon. R. Carter Wellford, ex-member of the Legislature and the largest farmer in the county; Eli Sharp, and George Alton, large oyster planters; Joseph W. Chinn, Jr., attorney for the Commonwealth; Dr. L. G. Mitchell and W. Y. Morgan, editor of the Northern News.

Among those who addressed the meeting were Congressman W. A. Jones, Gloucester County, and Gloucester, Va., Dec. 7.—A large mass meeting of citizens of Gloucester county met at the courthouse to-day and opposed the passage of the Jordan oyster bill, and ordered copies of the resolution to be sent to each member of the Legislature and the Times-Dispatch.

TORPEDO FLOTILLA TO SAIL TO-DAY

Will Make the Trip South Without a Convoy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

OLD POINT, Va., Dec. 7.—The first torpedo flotilla will sail from Hampton Roads to-morrow. The little boats will proceed without convoy from Hampton Roads to San Juan. This feat was accomplished by the smaller torpedo boats last winter without comment. The fact that the equatorial passage between Bahia and the West African coast has been chosen, lessens the danger to the destroyer flotilla.

The flotilla, their convoy, will not join them until they are far south of the zone of tropical storms.

MUNIFICENT GIFT TO THE UNIVERSITY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
